

Angela Loëb's One-On-One Services

Clarity and planning sessions to help you get unstuck and get what you want.

Create Your Own Personal Consultation Package

Clarity and planning might take 4-6 sessions or it might only take 2. Everyone is unique. Angela will help you customize a consultation package to meet your specific needs.

Arrange the number of sessions you want ahead of time or figure it out with her as you go by adding as many sessions as you want to your initial session.

Note: Initial sessions are always 1 ½ hour long. Also, whenever you engage with Angela through multiple sessions, you automatically receive email support during the time you and she work together.
